

COUNSELING PROGRAM

The Parkview School District shall maintain a school-counseling program in which students are systematically, actively and purposely assisted in acquiring personal human skills.

The program is comprehensive in scope and modeled after the Wisconsin Model Academic Standards for School Counseling, which focuses on three domains: academic, emotional and personal/social.

The specific components of the school-counseling program include:

- A program that reaches every student
- Is designed to be preventative
- Developmental in nature
- Integral part of the total educational system

Service Delivery includes; but is not limited to:

- School Counseling Curriculum
 - Classroom activities
 - Interdisciplinary curriculum development
 - Group activities
 - Parent workshops
- Individual Student Planning
 - Individual or small group appraisal
 - Individual or small group advisement
 - Student and parent educational/career planning conferences
- Responsive Services
 - Consultation
 - Individual and small group counseling
 - Crisis counseling
 - Referrals
 - Peer facilitation
- System Support
 - Professional development
 - Consultation, collaboration and teaming
 - Program management and operation

The District shall not discriminate in the methods, practices and materials used for counseling students on the basis of sex, race, color, national origin, religion, ancestry, creed, pregnancy, marital or parental status, sexual orientation or physical, mental, emotional or learning disability or handicap. This does not, however, prohibit the use of special counseling materials or techniques to meet the individualized needs of students. Discrimination complaints shall be processed in accordance with established procedures.
