Parkview Board Approves New 2019-23 Strategic Plan

By Steve Lutzke, District Administrator

On August 31, the Parkview Board of Education approved the 2019-23 Strategic Plan. The Strategic Plan will guide the daily focus and work of the Board, Administration, Teachers and Staff. All of the aforementioned groups work very hard to meet the needs of our students and community and the Strategic Plan will ensure all groups are working towards the same vision and with the same mission.

Parkview's vision is to develop high performing, innovative global citizens. While the vision is concise, it encompasses three very important components. First, our students need to perform at a high level in order to be successful in college, career and life. Parkview has significantly increased to students the number of AP courses and Dual-credit college courses available. It is also critical for our students to be successful innovators. To grow innovation in our students, Parkview regularly incorporates creativity, critical thinking, communication and collaboration (4Cs) into our daily instruction. Additionally, Parkview has greatly increased opportunities for students to learn computer coding, programming and robotics. Lastly, our world shrank with the incorporation of digital communication and it is critical that our students are able to interact with and compete against people from around the world. Changes in our curriculum now include more exposure to other cultures and customs. Spanish is the fastest growing language in the world and most Parkview students complete at least two years of Spanish language instruction.

Our District mission is to provide a school that achieves excellence by supporting the academic, social and emotional well-being of all students. To achieve our mission, Parkview is going to focus on five key areas.

1. Teaching, Learning & Instruction
2. Competent Global Citizens
3. Family & Community Engagement
4. Healthy, Happy & Engaged Staff
5. Finance, Facilities & Operations

Each of these areas includes a specific District goal, methods for measuring the success of the goals and strategic actions that the District is committed to implement. The complete 2019-23 Strategic Action plan is found on the Parkview School District website. The web address is www.parkview.k12.wi.us. Once on the website follow this path to the Strategic Plan: District>2019-2023 District Strategic Plan. Click on the link titled "2019-23 District Strategic Plan."

Annually the Administration will provide an update to the Board regarding progress towards each goal.

My Fair Lady is Coming

This year's musical is My Fair Lady. Tryouts for grade 7-12 students are Monday, September 9, from 3:30-5:30 p.m. and Tuesday, September 10 from 5:30-7:00 p.m. in the JR/SR High Choir Room. Contact Mrs. Xavier or Mrs. Schuler for audition materials.

Parkview Youth Center

The Parkview Youth Center will be open again from 3 – 6 p.m. on Thursday nights at the Orfordville Lutheran Church for students in grade 7 -12 who reside in the Parkview School District. The Youth Center is here to give the youth an opportunity to get together and “hang out” as well as playing games, learning new things and making things for the residents at “The Next Inning” assisted living home in Orfordville. Snacks and light meals are provided.

The Youth Center needs the help of volunteers as well as donations to keep it going. What can you do to help? You can donate either time or material items. They are always in need of bottled water and snack items such as fruit cups, granola bars, single-serve packs of cookies such as Chips Ahoy, Nutter Butters and Oreos, chips and fruit strips. Craft supplies are always appreciated as well, preferably ready-made kits that are age appropriate.

There is also a great need for volunteers. There must be a minimum of two adult supervisors there at all times, but three would be better. Ideally there would be groups who would sign up for one week a month. Volunteers do need to have a background check completed before they can volunteer, and they will also be provided with training. There is no cost to the volunteers for this. Additionally they would like volunteers to come in and teach the youth an activity. It can be a craft such as wood burning, painting, or other types of activities. This can be a one-time commitment, or you can teach more than one session. The youth are eager to try new activities.

If you can help in any way, or are interested in learning more, contact Teena Gerber at: tgerber5@hotmail.com

The Athletic Booster club is the group that provides concession stands at athletic events. They handed out Parkview yard signs at both schools on Back to School night. They provide support in many different ways for Parkview’s student athletes.

Currently they are holding a raffle for the ATV pictured above with a trailer to haul it with included in the grand prize. They will be selling tickets until Friday, September 27. ## A Message from the Food Service Director

Dear Parents/Guardians:

Welcome back to a new school year!

I am excited for the opportunity to serve nutritious and delicious meals that support growing minds and bodies to new smiling faces in the Parkview School District.

This year, you may notice changes to the menus or website. My goal for the upcoming school year is to get to know the students and staff and to incorporate some new menu items and serving styles. We know the JR/SR High kids are always on the go. I would like to offer more grab and go meal options for them. I hope to encourage fun and tasting at all locations. We will offer samples of new and unknown menu items to encourage trying new things. Please encourage your children to try new menu items and to let us know how they like it.

I encourage you all to reach out to me if you have questions or concerns.

What is a Student Meal?

We participate in offer vs. serve at both breakfast and lunch. That means we offer all the components that are needed, and the students can take or decline as they wish. At breakfast, we offer four components of which the student must choose a minimum of three. We offer a variety of bread/grain, fruit/vegetable and milk components. Menu items may account for one or two components. At lunch, we offer five components of which the student must choose a minimum of three and can take up to 5. Lunch components include meat/meat alternative, bread/grain, fruit, vegetable and milk. Once again, menu items may include more than one component; for example, a cheeseburger is both the meat/meat alternate and the grain. To purchase a reimbursable breakfast or lunch, one of the components chosen MUST be a fruit or vegetable at both meals.

How Do I Pay for School Meals?

Options for food purchases include: cash, check or online payment.

An automated point of sale system in all cafeterias allows parents to set up an account and view what their child is purchasing and their current account balance. This can be accomplished over the internet at Skyward family access; as well as payments online.

Restrictions and low balance alerts can also be set on Skyward Family Access

Students enter their pin number for purchasing food items at the register

If you are paying by check please make it out to Parkview School District with your child's name and ID number on the check.

Parents/Guardians may access lunch menus and food service information at www.parkview.k12.wi.us/district/lunchmenu.cfm **Please note you can add a statement on your child's account such as, "lunch only" or "breakfast only." Every child has the opportunity to eat both breakfast and lunch unless we have a note on their account that says otherwise. ***

A La Carte Purchases

We sell a variety of a la carte items at the JR/SR High level. All items sold follow the Smart Snack guideline laws as of 2014 which are as follows:

Free and Reduced Meals

Apply online, anytime, anywhere on www.parkview.k12.wi.us/district/FreeandReducedSchoolMealsApplication.cfm. The District has made it faster and easier for parents to apply for free and reduced meals. This free service enables families to receive program benefits faster than using the paper application. Your application is electronically submitted directly to the food service department for processing.

Free and reduced applications can be completed at any time throughout the school year should your financial situation change.

Each school year a new application must be submitted (1 per household family) even if your child was receiving free or reduced meals the last school year.

You must complete a new application before October 8, 2019. If you have not returned a new application by that date, your child will be removed from the program and will have to pay full price for meals until a new application is completed.

If you accrue a negative balance and then qualify for free/reduced, you are still responsible to pay for that negative balance.

If your child is receiving free/reduced meals they can have a complete breakfast and lunch meal

Parkview School District’s Jen Bowers, Honored as ‘2019 eduCLIMBER Power User’

Program honors educators and administrators for their outstanding work and leadership

PEWAUKEE, WI (Aug. 2, 2019) – Local district Director of Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment, Jen Bowers, has been named a ‘2019 eduCLIMBER Power User’ for her notable contributions at Parkview School District. The award was bestowed by leading K-12 student achievement solution Illuminate Education. The program honors outstanding educators and administrators who use Illuminate eduCLIMBER, a cloud-hosted data platform, to increase the power of teaching and the delight of learning.

Bowers was recognized for her skill and leadership in embedding data-driven instruction into the district’s daily practices. Her deep knowledge and keen insight has helped inform some of eduCLIMBER’s development as well as the platform’s interoperability with other Illuminate products, such as Data and Assessment (DnA) and FAST.

All five 2019 Power Users were awarded at the 2019 eduCLIMBER National User Conference in Pewaukee. This event brings together over 300 educators for two days of professional learning, training sessions, and networking. Awardees were selected based on their impactful role in using eduCLIMBER to make a difference for their students, schools, and district.

“The eduCLIMBER Power User award program gives us the opportunity to recognize amazing educators who are accelerating the learning process for all students,” said Amy Jackson, Vice President of Learning and Development at Illuminate Education. “While the awardees were selected based on a variety of criteria, they all have something in common: a passion to help students and support their fellow colleagues. I am honored to award Jen Bowers for her incredible work at Parkview School District.”

Bowers is a long-time champion of eduCLIMBER and presents annually at the eduCLIMBER National User Conference, sharing knowledge, experience, and proven strategies with educators from across the country.

“I am so honored to be nominated and grateful to be one of the first recipients of the eduCLIMBER Power User award,” said Bowers. “eduCLIMBER has been an integral part of the systems in the Parkview School District for many years and it has been my pleasure to support teams of educators and administrators to make decisions about what’s best for our students.”

Back to School for teachers and staff

August 22 teachers and staff members returned to school for a district wide meeting and training. Staff members were honored for years of employment (in increments of five). Sessions were offered to help employees be healthy, happy and engaged—some of the sessions included healthy snacks, retirement planning, basics of investing, work/ life balance and active lifestyle (games such as bags, Frisbee, etc.) to help relax and get a little exercise and training for Chromebook and smartboards. A representative for #SocialSchool4EDU was there to explain how they will handle the school's social media posting. After lunch groups broke off into different types of training.

Staff gathered in the JR/SR High Commons for the back to school day for staff; cinnamon rolls, fresh fruit, yogurt and beverages were available for breakfast, prepared by the Parkview Food Service. An excellent lunch was also served by the food service.

From the WIAA

Op-Ed: The Biggest Challenge Facing High School Sports Today

08/26/2019, 2:00pm CDT By WIAA

By Karissa Niehoff, Executive Director of the National Federation of State High School Associations and David Anderson, Executive Director of the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association

Inappropriate adult behavior at high school athletic events has reached epidemic proportion.

When more than 2,000 high school athletic directors were asked in a recent national survey what they like least about their job, 62.3 percent said it was “dealing with aggressive parents and adult fans.”

And the men and women who wear the black and white stripes agree. In fact, almost 80 percent of officials quit after the first two years on the job, and unruly parents are cited as the reason why. As a result, there is a growing shortage of high school officials here, and in some sports like wrestling, swimming, and track and field, the shortage is severe. No officials means no more games.

If you are a parent attending a high school athletic event this fall, you can help by following these six guidelines:

Act Your Age. You are, after all, an adult. Act in a way that makes your family and school proud.

Don't Live Your Life Vicariously Through Your Children. High school sports are for them, not you. Your family's reputation is not determined by how well your children perform on the field of play.

Let Your Children Talk to the Coach Instead of You Doing It for Them. High school athletes learn how to become more confident, independent and capable—but only when their parents don't jump in and solve their problems for them.

Stay in Your Own Lane. No coaching or officiating from the sidelines. Your role is to be a responsible, supportive parent—not a coach or official.

Remember, Participating in a High School Sport Is Not About Getting a College Scholarship. According to the NCAA, only about 2 percent of all high school athletes are awarded a sports scholarship, and the total value of the scholarship is only about $18,000.

Make Sure Your Children Know You Love Watching Them Play. Do not critique your child's performance on the car ride home. Participating in high school sports is about character development, learning and having fun—not winning and losing.

Purchasing a ticket to a high school athletic event does not give you the right to be rude, disrespectful or verbally abusive. Cheer loud and be proud, but be responsible and respectful. The future of high school sports in Wisconsin is dependent on you.
