September is Suicide Prevention Month

September is suicide prevention month. School psychologist Amber Jacoby invited Lindsay Stevens, Executive Director of NAMI (National Alliance on Mental Health) Rock County to present a program for Parkview JR/SR high students. Autumn Forss, a NAMI volunteer also spoke to the students. There will be a complete story in the October issue of the Parkview Voice, but we would like to share some important resources for anyone who may need them. One thing Autumn told the students was, "It's ok to not be ok and to seek help."
